We are presented with daily opportunities to help the elderly, to listen to bereaved neighbours and to give human contact to the lonely, provided we are willing to take time out.

It's as good a day as any to reflect on the way in which we perform or neglect these functions.

Pastor's Note

Eager to put the trauma and disgrace of Good Friday out of their minds, the apostles have slipped back to life as it was before the call of Jesus.

They have just got back from a night's fishing empty handed. A stranger on the shore urges them to cast their nets once more and the result is a miraculous catch of fish. At this moment they recognise the Lord and accept his invitation to share breakfast with him at the lakeside. In Pilate's courtyard Peter with curses and an oath had denied he knew Jesus and now the memories of how badly he had acted on that occasion were making him uneasy. Jesus knew exactly how he felt and offered him an opportunity to proclaim his love and loyalty to the risen Christ. Peter's authority, lost by his denial, is now restored through his confession of faith. His position as head of the apostles is clarified and he is given the commission to guard the whole flock in Christ's name, a role that will lead to a violent death.

The Good Shepherd leaves his church in the charge of a man who has failed, which shows that Christ's call does not exclude falls. Peter came to know God's grace through failure. Often failure can be the finger of God pointing the way, awakening within us an awareness of our own helplessness. Whatever it was about that lakeside gathering it restored Peter's confidence, gave him strength to renew his faith and throw himself into the spreading of the gospel.

The challenge which Christ presented to Peter, 'Simon, son of John, do you love me more than these others do?' is the same challenge facing us.

We are to plunge into the waters of life and risk everything for the sake of the Lord. The miraculous catch of fish symbolises the bringing of all people into the reach of God's mercy. The church will gather, into one unbroken net, men and women of every race, colour and nationality. Like the apostles, everyone has been summoned by Jesus to extend God's kingdom everywhere. We are to bear effective witness, to go out and preach in his name to a world that does not always want to hear the truth.

To be faithful to the ideals of the gospel requires courage, because it is never easy to do what is right when it means we have to go against popular values. Our life's work is meant to be one of living service to the glory of God. All of us can find some role where we can be helpful to others, whether it be modest, spectacular, important or insignificant.

CONFITEOR

I confess to almighty God
and to you, my brothers and sisters, that I have greatly sinned
in my thoughts and in my words, in what I have done and in what I have failed to do,
through my fault,
through my fault,
through my most grievous fault;
therefore I ask blessed Mary
ever-Virgin,
all the Angels and Saints,
and you, my brothers and sisters
to pray for me to the Lord our God.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM 30

I will praise you, Lord, you have rescued
me
and have not let my enemies rejoice over
me.
O Lord, you have raised my soul from the dead,
restored me to life from those who sink into
the grave.
Sing psalms to the Lord, you who love him,
Give thanks to his holy name.
His anger lasts but a moment; his favour through life.
At night there are tears, but joy comes with the dawn.

The Lord listened and had pity.
The Lord came to my help.
For me you have changed my mourning
into dancing;
O Lord my God, I will thank you for ever.

GLORIA

Glory to God in the highest,
and on Earth peace to people of good will.
We praise you, we bless you,
we adore you, we glorify you,
we give you thanks for your great glory,
Lord God, heavenly King,
O God, almighty Father.
Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son, Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father,
you take away the sins of the world,
have mercy on us;
you take away the sins of the world,
receive our prayer;
you are seated
at the right hand of the Father,
have mercy on us.
For you alone are the Holy One,
you alone are the Lord,
you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ,
with the Holy Spirit,
in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

APOSTLES CREED

I believe in God, the Father Almighty, Creator of Heaven and Earth;
and in Jesus Christ, His only Son, our Lord:
who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born
of the Virgin Mary;
suffered under Pontius Pilate,
was crucified, died and was buried.
He descended into Hell;
on the third day
He rose again from the dead;
He ascended into Heaven,
and is seated at the right hand of God the Father Almighty;
from there He will come to judge
the living and the dead.
I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the holy catholic church,
the communion of saints,
the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body,
and life everlasting. Amen.
