Pentecost Sunday : (Year C) : 9 June 2019

PENTECOST SUNDAY

The season of Easter concludes with today's celebration, the feast of Pentecost.

At Pentecost we celebrate the descent of the Holy Spirit upon the Apostles gathered in the upper room in Jerusalem. The Feast of Pentecost is the birthday of the Church. The Church for some 2000 years has withstood the devastating ravages of time. It has seen empires rise, flourish and then fall. It has withstood diabolical attempts to destroy it from without and corrupting influences from within. Through it all, the permanence and the stability of the Church have stood out like a beacon in the night.

God wants each of us to live our life in its fullness; the Good News Jesus came to reveal is intended for people of all time.

Jesus prepared a group of disciples some 2000 years ago, so that his mission on earth would be continued. He breathed on them and infused them with the Holy Spirit.

Jesus fulfilled his promise to send his disciples a helper, an advocate, who would enable them to be his witnesses throughout the world. He unleashed on them the power of the Spirit and gave them their formal commission: "Go into the whole world. Make disciples of all nations".

It was by the power of the Holy Spirit that the Gospel was preached by such simple, unlettered followers. With their dedication and love for Jesus, they evangelised the whole world in a few centuries.

Thanks to these faithful disciples, Christ's message has spread far and wide. As at October 2018 the bible has been translated into 683 languages! The New Testament has been translated into an additional 1534 languages and bible portions or stories into 1133 other languages.

Today, on the feast of the Pentecost, the Spirit comes to draw all people together, people of different languages and nations. Here in our parish itself we have so many nationalities, languages, cultures all worshipping under the same roof. This itself is the work of the Holy Spirit.

The Church is as vibrant today as it was in apostolic times. It is through this same Holy Spirit, that Pope Francis, laity, clergy and religious all collaborate to create a fruitful apostolate.

As we celebrate the feast of Pentecost, we continue to pray that the Holy Spirit be poured

RESPONSORIAL PSALM 103

Bless the Lord, my soul!
 Lord God, how great you are,
 How many are your works, O Lord!
 The earth is full of your riches.

You take back your spirit, they die,
 returning to the dust from which they came.
 You send forth your spirit, they are created,
 and you renew the face of the earth.

May the glory of the Lord last for ever!
 May the Lord rejoice in his works!
 May my thoughts be pleasing to him.
 I find my joy in the Lord.

APOSTLES CREED

I believe in God, the Father Almighty, Creator of Heaven and Earth;
 and in Jesus Christ, His only Son, our Lord:
 who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born
 of the Virgin Mary;
 suffered under Pontius Pilate,
 was crucified, died and was buried.
 He descended into Hell;
 on the third day
 He rose again from the dead;
 He ascended into Heaven,
 and is seated at the right hand of God the Father Almighty;
 from there He will come to judge
 the living and the dead.
 I believe in the Holy Spirit,
 the holy catholic church,
 the communion of saints,
 the forgiveness of sins,
 the resurrection of the body,
 and life everlasting. Amen.

GLORIA

Glory to God in the highest,
 and on Earth peace to people of good will.
 We praise you, we bless you,
 we adore you, we glorify you,
 we give you thanks for your great glory,
 Lord God, heavenly King,
 O God, almighty Father.
 Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son,
 Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father,
 you take away the sins of the world,
 have mercy on us;
 you take away the sins of the world,
 receive our prayer;
 you are seated
 at the right hand of the Father,
 have mercy on us.
 For you alone are the Holy One,
 you alone are the Lord,
 you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ,
 with the Holy Spirit,
 in the glory of God the Father. Amen.
