Reflection

Jesus returns to his home in Nazareth. The Sabbath finds him in the synagogue where he begins to teach. Those present were astonished at what he was saying. What is the source of his wisdom and mighty deeds? They took offence at him. They were not able to see how God was present in Jesus and how God was working in his life. Because of their lack of faith, Jesus would perform no mighty deeds there. Are there areas in your life where faith is lacking, where God is unable to work?

Prophets of God

Today's readings are about prophets, the prophet Ezekiel and the prophet Jesus. Both were sent (missio) to be witnesses to God's work among His people. The lessons today are important for all the baptised as all the baptised are called and anointed to be prophets and to do the same work as Jesus and Ezekiel. Your first reaction may be, ...what, me a prophet!

HOW ARE THE BAPTISED PROPHETS IN CHRIST? Firstly, you have been chosen by God. We are all called to be prophets. We are called as members of "Christ's" body ("Christus" means the anointed one). Our "prophetic mission" is founded in the sacrament of Christian baptism. In the Baptismal Rite we are anointing with sacred chrism oil with these words...

"As Christ was anointed Priest, Prophet, and King, so may you live always as a member of his body, sharing everlasting life."

Secondly, we are called prophets by being companions and witnesses to Christ in our families, among our friends and at our work place. The Catechism of the Catholic Church says the prophetic mission of the laity is to be... "accomplished in the ordinary circumstances of the world" (CCC, 905). We are Prophets... when we speak the truth and give a good example to our spouses and in our families. We are prophets when others may have fallen away from their prayer life but we continue with ours. We are prophets when we live as Christian's before our extended families, neighbours, and co-workers. Just like Jesus we don't work alone and unassisted, we work through the Holy Spirit. It is the Holy Spirit who inspires and strengthens us to be faithful witnesses. This is very consoling especially when we consider Our Lord's own words, ... 'A prophet is only despised in his own country, among his own relations, and in his own house'

To accomplish this "mission" (being sent) into the world, we need to pray always! Jesus prayed continually throughout His entire life. In fact, it is a great relief to know that when we pray we are always assisted by the Holy Spirit, thus, we can relate to the first reading from the Prophet Ezekiel... "The spirit came into me and made me stand up, and I heard the Lord speaking to me." I think all of us would agree that it is only by the inspiration and strength of the Holy Spirit that we are able to profess our Catholic Faith in the ordinary circumstances of our lives.

Come, Holy Spirit, fill the hearts of your faithful and enkindle in them the fire of your love.
V. Send forth your Spirit and they shall be created.
R. And you shall renew the face of the earth.

Let us pray.

O God, who by the light of the Holy Spirit, did instruct the hearts of the faithful, grant us in the same Spirit to be truly wise and ever to rejoice in His consolation.
Through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Blessings, Fr Andrew Matthew

GLORIA

Glory to God in the highest, and on Earth peace to people of good will.
We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you, we give you thanks
for your great glory,
Lord God, heavenly King,
O God, almighty Father.
Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son, Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us;
you take away the sins of the world,
receive our prayer;
you are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us.
For you alone are the Holy One,
you alone are the Lord,
you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

PSALM : # 123 (PRAY TOGETHER)

To you I lift up my eyes — O you who are enthroned in the heavens as the eyes of servants look to the hand of their master.

As the eyes of a maid to the hand of her mistress, so our eyes look to the Lord our God, until he has mercy upon us.

Have mercy upon us, O Lord, have mercy, for we have had more than enough of contempt. Our soul has had more than its fill of the scorn of those who are at ease, of the contempt of the proud.

APOSTLES CREED

I believe in God, the Father Almighty, Creator of Heaven and Earth;
and in Jesus Christ, His only Son, our Lord:
who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born
of the Virgin Mary;
suffered under Pontius Pilate,
was crucified, died and was buried.
He descended into Hell;
on the third day
He rose again from the dead;
He ascended into Heaven,
and is seated at the right hand
of God the Father Almighty;
from there He will come to judge
the living and the dead.
I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the holy catholic church,
the communion of saints,
the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body,
and life everlasting. Amen.

CONFITEOR

I confess to almighty God
and to you, my brothers and sisters, that I have greatly sinned
in my thoughts and in my words, in what I have done and in what I have failed to do,
through my fault,
through my fault,
through my most grievous fault;
therefore I ask blessed Mary ever-Virgin,
all the Angels and Saints,
and you, my brothers and sisters, to pray for me to the Lord our God
