15TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME : YEAR B : 11 JULY 2021

Once a month during the Pastor's Note will be provided by one of the Chaplaincies that operate in the Diocese. THIS MONTH, FOR SEA SUNDAY WE HEAR FROM KHENG TAN, A CATHEDRAL PARISHIONER WHO IS CHAPLAIN FOR STELLA MARIS FORMERLY KNOWN AS APOSTLESHIP OF THE SEA.

We often hear of hospital, prison or army chaplaincy, but we seldom hear of seafarers' chaplaincy. The Catholic Church maritime agency, Stella Maris (formerly Apostleship of the Sea), answers to our Lord's call "I am a stranger, you welcome me" (Matthew 25). It has been in existence for over a hundred years. In Auckland, Stella Maris, together with the Anglican Mission, provides practical help and pastoral care to seafarers and fishers. 90% of goods that come into our country arrives by ship. That is much of the food we eat, equipment in our hospitals, cars, just about everything. And seafarers (and fishers) are the ones who transport these goods across the oceans for us.

I have been involved in Stella Maris for over four years. My role involves going on board ships to present a friendly and welcoming face to the seafarers. On board ships, I am able to share their joys and sorrows, provide a listening ear to the seafarers' problems, be it work or family. I remember an occasion when a seafarer was celebrating his son's 2nd birthday on Facetime. He was delighted I was able to offer a prayer or two for his son. The sad part of this job involves attending to deaths on board ships, including arranging a priest for funeral rites. There were also instances of comforting distraught seafarers whose parents passed away suddenly and they couldn't return home. On a number of occasions, pastoral care is given to seafarers in hospital and at times in prison.

The Seafarers Centre in Quay Street is a place for seafarers on shore leave to have a rest, away from the confines of their ship. We also provide sim cards and wi-fi to enable them to connect to their families back home. Volunteers used to manage the Centre before the onset of Covid-19. The short turnaround of ships at our ports means it is almost impossible for Catholic seafarers to attend Mass. Sunday Mass readings are distributed and Holy Communion is offered on board ships to Catholic seafarers. Often this is the only connection to their faith. Whenever possible, I arrange for a priest to celebrate Mass on board ships, if not, a Liturgy of Word is celebrated. The Covid-19 pandemic also pose very challenging times for the seafarers. Borders are closed disrupting crew change. Some are known to have been stuck on board ships for more than a year. Shore leave for crew are cancelled and New Zealand ports are still under level 4 lockdown. Consequently, the Seafarer Centre is closed. However, our emphasis is now placed on ship visiting.

We, chaplains, have become personal shoppers for the seafarers, purchasing personal items, be it, grooming/hygienic products, electronic items, clothes, pharmacy medicines and snacks.

It is an honour and privilege to be the face of Christ to these seafarers. We take this opportunity to thank our past volunteers. Certainly, their contributions made a difference to the lives of these seafarers. We give thanks to our Lord for the work of seafarers and fishers, and humbly ask you to pray for them, especially this Sea Sunday

Reflection

Jesus sends the twelve out to preach, teach and heal. Consider what it must have been like to have spent all that time hearing the words spoken by Jesus and to have seen him heal people; now they themselves are the ones preaching the Good News, teaching about the Kingdom and healing others. We too have spent time with the Word of God. We have experienced healing in the sacraments. How is God calling you to preach, teach and heal in the world today?

GLORIA

Glory to God in the highest, and on Earth peace to people of good will.
 We praise you, we bless you, we adore
 you, we glorify you, we give you thanks
 for your great glory,
 Lord God, heavenly King,
 O God, almighty Father.
 Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son, Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us;
 you take away the sins of the world,
 receive our prayer;
 you are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us.
 For you alone are the Holy One,
 you alone are the Lord,
 you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

PSALM : # 85

(PRAY TOGETHER)

Let me hear what God the Lord will speak, for he will speak peace to his people.
 Surely his salvation is at hand for those who fear him, that his glory may dwell
 in our land.
 Steadfast love and faithfulness will meet; righteousness and peace will kiss each other.
 Faithfulness will spring up from the ground, and righteousness will look down from the sky.
 The Lord will give what is good, and our land will yield its increase.
 Righteousness will go before him, and will make a path for his steps,

APOSTLES CREED

I believe in God, the Father Almighty, Creator of Heaven and Earth;
 and in Jesus Christ, His only Son, our Lord:
 who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born
 of the Virgin Mary;
 suffered under Pontius Pilate,
 was crucified, died and was buried.
 He descended into Hell;
 on the third day
 He rose again from the dead;
 He ascended into Heaven,
 and is seated at the right hand
 of God the Father Almighty;
 from there He will come to judge
 the living and the dead.
 I believe in the Holy Spirit,
 the holy catholic church,
 the communion of saints,
 the forgiveness of sins,
 the resurrection of the body,
 and life everlasting. Amen.

CONFITEOR

I confess to almighty God
 and to you, my brothers and sisters, that I have greatly sinned
 in my thoughts and in my words, in what I have done and
 in what I have failed to do,
through my fault,
through my fault,
through my most grievous fault;
 therefore I ask blessed Mary
 ever-Virgin,
 all the Angels and Saints,
 and you, my brothers and sisters, to pray for me to
 the Lord our God
