16TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME : YEAR B : 18 JULY 2021

Pastoral Note for 16th Sunday in Ordinary Time.

The image of the shepherd has always been an important part of Jesus' ministry. There are many phrases from Scripture we are familiar with: "I am the Good Shepherd", "the shepherd lays down his life for his sheep". Today we hear from Jeremiah that it is God our Father who wants one who will shepherd His people, not like the shepherds of old who cared more about themselves than the sheep, but one who will gather the sheep, look after them, and bring them all to the Father's fold.

This is not the kind of shepherding we are familiar with in our country. We are more used to seeing the sheep dotted throughout the countryside, wandering around and feeding themselves, seemingly left to their own devices. Every now and then though, if we happened to be near the farm at the right time, we can see a long string of sheep, with the farmer in the front (obviously not walking as in Jesus' day, but on a quadbike), sheep dogs acting as the rear guard keeping an eye on strays, and one cannot help but be reminded, "I call my sheep, they listen to my voice and they follow me".

Jesus, seeing the need of the people, took the initiative to look after them, even though his plan was to spend some quiet time with his disciples. Let us have an open heart and keen eyes to see the needs of others too, and like Jesus, be willing to leave our own plans aside and allow God's plan to bear fruit.

Blessings,
Fr. Francis Poon,
St John the Baptist, Parnell

Reflection

Much like the shepherd in Psalm 23, who leads his flock to green pastures, Jesus invites his disciples to a deserted place for rest. Unfortunately, before they arrive, the crowds overwhelm them. Moved to pity, Jesus begins to teach them. Jesus is teaching the Apostles that it is important to take time to pause and reflect upon the mission. Too often, that mission to follow Christ involves placing the needs of others before our own. In baptism, we are called to put on Christ. How will you live out this call today?

GLORIA

Glory to God in the highest, and on Earth peace to people of good will.
We praise you, we bless you, we adore
you, we glorify you, we give you thanks
for your great glory,
Lord God, heavenly King,
O God, almighty Father.
Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son, Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us;
you take away the sins of the world,
receive our prayer;
you are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us.
For you alone are the Holy One,
you alone are the Lord,
you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit,
in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

PSALM : # 23 [SUNG]

The Lord is my shepherd, I shall not want.
He makes me lie down in green pastures;
he leads me beside still waters;
he restores my soul.
He leads me in right paths for his name's sake.
Even though I walk through the darkest valley, I feel no evil;
for you are with me;
your rod and your staff — they comfort me.
You prepare a table before me in the presence of my enemies;
you anoint my head with oil;
my cup overflows.
Surely goodness and mercy shall follow
me all the days of my life,
and I shall dwell in the house of the Lord
my whole life long.

APOSTLES CREED

I believe in God, the Father Almighty, Creator of Heaven and Earth;
and in Jesus Christ, His only Son, our Lord:
who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born
of the Virgin Mary;
suffered under Pontius Pilate,
was crucified, died and was buried.
He descended into Hell;
on the third day
He rose again from the dead;
He ascended into Heaven,
and is seated at the right hand
of God the Father Almighty;
from there He will come to judge
the living and the dead.
I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the holy catholic church,
the communion of saints,
the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body,
and life everlasting. Amen.

CONFITEOR

I confess to almighty God
and to you, my brothers and sisters, that I have greatly sinned
in my thoughts and in my words,
in what I have done and
in what I have failed to do,
through my fault,
through my fault,
through my most grievous fault;
therefore I ask blessed Mary
ever-Virgin,
all the Angels and Saints,
and you, my brothers and sisters, to pray for me to
the Lord our God
