PASTOR'S NOTE

Going the wrong way?

As Jesus resolutely sets himself on the journey to Jerusalem, he is confronted with the rejection from the Samaritan village. This may have been because he was heading toward Mount Zion and not the mountain that was held holy by the Samaritans, Mount Gerizen.

Faced with rejection, the Apostles are indignant and want payback, but Jesus will have nothing to do with violence; instead, he leaves judgement to God and accepts that it will happen according to God's timetable, and not his.

The second part of the Gospel is Jesus' encounters with 'would be' disciples. The first is determined enough, but Jesus confronts him with the insecurity and homelessness of life as a disciple of the Son of Man. The second makes an excuse with family obligations. The third, wants to commit but with "delaying tactics" – "let me go and say goodbye to the people at home." In all circumstances Jesus challenges these would be disciples, asking of them (a) to establish a clear choice of priorities and (b) to make a clean break with the past. Moving away from the family they have come from; the disciple enters the reconstituted family of the Church – "who hear the word of God and do it" Lk 8:21. This is also a prophetic extension for the Church where we are called to separate ourselves from social structures rather than accommodate them and to be single-minded rather than divided in our loyalties. In a modern world this can be a difficult challenge, especially when we can face more than a village's worth of rejection.

In our reception of the Eucharist, we may want to take a moment to reflect on Jesus' unwavering journey to the Father and his total self-giving – both culminating with his death on a cross. The Eucharist presents that self-giving as the brand of discipleship to be emulated in daily life. This direction is one we can take heart in, giving thanks for those who took up the challenge and have shared their lives around the table of the Lord. People's lives give humanity and character to the Church. Not easily done but done. As they did in Jesus' time so today do his words continue to challenge and prod today's followers and would be followers along the journey of faith. It may be difficult at times, and we may face rejection, but at least we are travelling in the right direction.

Parish Priest | St John de Baptist Church, Parnell

Entrance: 392 Praise My Soul the King of Heaven Offertory:
Communion: 449 Be Not Afraid
Recessional: 404 Christ Be Our Light

Psalm 16:1-2, 5, 7-8, 9-10, 11

[Pray together]

Keep me, O God, for in you I take refuge;
 I say to the LORD, "My Lord are you.
 O LORD, my allotted portion and my cup, you it is who hold fast my lot."

I bless the LORD who counsels me;
 even in the night my heart exhorts me.
 I set the LORD ever before me;
 with him at my right hand I shall not be disturbed.

Therefore my heart is glad and my soul
 rejoices,
 my body, too, abides in confidence because you will not abandon my soul to the netherworld,
 nor will you suffer your faithful one to undergo corruption.

You will show me the path to life,
 fullness of joys in your presence,
 the delights at your right hand forever.

Apostles Creed

I believe in God, the Father Almighty, Creator of Heaven and Earth; and in Jesus Christ, His only Son, our Lord:
 who was conceived by the Holy Spirit,
 born of the Virgin Mary;
 suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died and was buried.
 He descended into Hell; on the third day
 He rose again from the dead;
 He ascended into Heaven,
 and is seated at the right hand
 of God the Father Almighty; from there He will come to judge the living and the dead.
I believe in the Holy Spirit,
 the Holy Catholic church,
 the communion of saints,
 the forgiveness of sins,
 the resurrection of the body,
 and life everlasting. Amen.

Confiteor

I confess to almighty God and to you, my brothers and sisters, that I have greatly sinned
 in my thoughts and in my words, in what I have done and in what I have failed to do,
through my fault, through my fault,
through my most grievous fault;
 therefore,
 I ask blessed Mary ever-Virgin,
 all the Angels and Saints,
 and you, my brothers and sisters,
to pray for me
to the Lord our God.
